THE END OF A SUCCESSFUL SEASON AND INFORMATION SESSIONS

Awesome season wrap-up and looking ahead to an eventful year ahead

Queens Village, NY, April 22, 2018–

The Queens College Speech Society is pleased to mention that it has concluded its inaugural competition season at the Northeast Regional Championships at Suffolk University, where the team took 3rd place in team sweepstakes. In addition, Maim Hogue – the Vice President of the QCSS – took 2nd place in Impromptu Speaking and was the tournament champion in Informative Speaking. Randy Perez – the President of QCSS – took 2nd place in Persuasive Speaking at the tournament, as well.

The team is looking to expand by recruiting new members for the next competition season which will begin late September 2018 until April 2019. Information sessions will be held every Monday afternoon for the remainder of the semester at 12:15pm at Lower Level 50, Classroom 3 at the Student Union. There, all newcomers will learn more about their speech, acting, and debate programs and what events will they will be doing for the upcoming season.

The QCSS is also looking for faculty advisors who can serve as chaperones during their team travels throughout the year. If anyone is interested in joining the team, or serving as a team chaperone, please contact the Speech Society President Randy Perez at qcspeechteam@gmail.com or at (516) 858-3156.
